PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Passing of Kīngi Tūheitia

The whānau of the king, his iwi Waikato-Tainui and thousands of other people from around New Zealand and the world have been grieving since it was announced. The King had died at age 69 after a period in hospital recovering from heart surgery.

We were able to send a number of staff and students to the tangi and to pay our school's respects to Kīngi Tūheitia and his whānau.

Kīngi Tūheitia Pōtatau Te Wherowhero VII has now been laid to rest on Taupiri Maunga.

He rests alongside previous Māori monarchs, after a poignant tangi that saw the monarch journey down his beloved Waikato River on a waka crafted for him, then carried up the maunga to the chants of hundreds that gathered to mourn him.

His youngest child, Ngā Wai Hono i te Pō, has been anointed the new leader of the Kingitanga to continue the legacy of her ancestors.

CPS SPORTS: AIMS GAMES 2024

CPS Panthers Battle to the Finish at AIMS Games 2024!

Our CPS Panthers had an amazing run at the 2024 AIMS Games! Captained by Marley-Joy and vice-captained by Mahaani, the girls made it all the way to the finals after a year of hard work and growing stronger as a team. They faced Henderson Intermediate—a team they narrowly lost to earlier in the term at Auckland Champs.

In a nail-biting rematch, the Panthers fought till the final whistle, falling just 1 point short in the last quarter. Despite the loss, our girls are still back-to-back champs in our eyes! They played brilliantly and represented our school and community with immense pride. Well done, Panthers! 🏆💪

Clendon Park Shines at AIMS Games 2024!

Ten of our Year 7/8 boys took on the challenge at the AIMS Games tournament, representing Clendon Park with pride. Led by captain Vilisoni, the team played 9 intense games, winning 8 and securing 17th place overall. They competed in the second Championship section and took the top spot! In a thrilling final, the boys faced Cambridge Middle School, pushing the game into overtime. With a nail-biting final score of 24-23, CPS came out on top! A special shoutout to Andrew Kumkee, nominated for the Mercury Wonderful Energy Award for his outstanding sportsmanship against Highlands Intermediate. Well done, boys! 🏀👏

Andrew Kumkee - Clendon Park School

We (Highlands Intermediate) played a very physical and competitive game against Clendon. Emotions were running high on both teams, fighting for top 16 spot. We came away with the win, leaving a sad and disappointed Clendon team and many supporters. After the game commenced, Andrew came over to our team and hugged and congratulated everyone of our players, coaches and management. He should be commended on his amazing attitude towards the winning team after such a hard loss.
